Yes the country and even much of the globe understand stacked decks. Everybody saw who "POTUS chose". It's not rocket science or AI required.

📌 The Insurrection Act & a "Crooked POTUS" - Hypothetical Military Action 📌

=====

Section	Military Branches Involved	Military Duties	Laws Enforced & Implications for POTUS
§ 251 (Federal Aid for State Govts)	- U.S. Army - U.S. Marine Corps - National Guard (federalized)	- Assist state authorities upon state request to quell insurrection. - Provide support, not direct arrest of POTUS (requires state/governor request).	- Enforces state laws against insurrection; no direct authority to arrest POTUS. - Hypothetical: If POTUS incites insurrection, state could request military, but POTUS immunity and constitutional limits apply.
§ 252 (Enforce Federal Authority)	- U.S. Army - U.S. Marine Corps - National Guard (federalized)	- Enforce federal laws when obstructed by rebellion or insurrection, including potential POTUS involvement. - Duties include securing federal property, not arresting POTUS directly (legal process needed).	- Enforces federal authority against rebellion; no explicit POTUS arrest power. - Hypothetical: If "crooked POTUS" leads insurrection, military could act to restore order, but arrest requires legal process (e.g., impeachment, courts).
§ 253 (Major Public Emergencies)	- U.S. Army - U.S. Marine Corps - National Guard (federalized)	- Address major public emergencies, insurrections, or domestic violence obstructing laws. - Duties: Restore order, protect federal interests, not arrest POTUS (requires legal authorization).	- Enforces federal/state laws during emergencies; no POTUS arrest authority. - Hypothetical: If "crooked POTUS" abuses power to incite unrest, military could act to quell, but POTUS arrest needs congressional/judicial action, not military.
§ 254 (Proclamation to Disperse)	- U.S. Army - U.S. Marine Corps - National Guard (federalized)	- Issue proclamation to disperse insurgents after military deployment (under §§ 252, 253). - Duties: Warn and secure areas, not arrest POTUS (legal process required).	- Enforces dispersal of insurgents after warning; no POTUS arrest power. - Hypothetical: If "crooked POTUS" leads insurgents, military warns dispersal, but POTUS arrest requires impeachment/courts, not military action.

📌 Notes on "Crooked POTUS" & Military Limits 📌

- The Insurrection Act does NOT authorize military arrest of the POTUS; POTUS has constitutional immunity (Article II) and can only be removed via impeachment (Article I, § 2-3) or legal process.
- Hypothetical misuse: If a "crooked POTUS" incites insurrection, military (Army, Marines, federalized National Guard) could restore order under POTUS orders or Congress, but arrest requires:
 - Impeachment by Congress.
 - Indictment post-office (Nixon v. Fitzgerald, 1982).
 - Court orders, not direct military action.
- Penalties for POTUS: Impeachment, removal, or criminal prosecution after leaving office; no military-imposed penalties exist.

Conclusion

- Appropriate Legal Actions:
 - FBI/DOJ: Investigate and support impeachment for espionage, treason, and bribery, using grand juries and subpoenas.
 - Congress: Impeach and remove the President, investigating AIPAC and Israel's influence.
 - Military: Remain neutral unless 25th Amendment is invoked or martial law is authorized.
 - Vice President/Cabinet: Declare incapacity under the 25th Amendment with evidence.
- Illegal Actions:
 - FBI/DOJ: Arresting or wiretapping the President without due process.
 - Military: Staging a coup, declaring martial law without authorization, or assassinating the President.
 - Vice President/Cabinet: Unilaterally removing the President without legal basis.

The U.S. system prioritizes constitutional checks (impeachment, 25th Amendment) over extralegal military or LE interventions, even with AIPAC's bribery and Israel's extortion complicating the process. Action hinges on overcoming congressional corruption through independent investigations.
